

Returning to Earning

Adept Training has been approved to be a training provider for the Government Incentives program known as 'Parents Returning to Earning'

The Returning to Earning program provides support to parents to return to work after an absence due to caring for children.

Grants of up to $1000 are available which can be used to cover any costs associated with approved training, such as books and materials, course fees, transport and child-care.

This program is available to Victorian candidates only.

Participant Eligibility

The Returning to Earning grants will support parents to return to work who:

- Have been absent from education, accredited training and the workforce for over two years while caring for children
- Are currently unemployed and wish to return to work, preferably in the next 12 months
- Have not worked for more than 4 months full time, or equivalent part-time, in the last 2 years
- Are Australian residents living in Victoria
- Will enroll in training to improve their workforce skills and/or earning potential
- Have not received a grant under the program Parents Returning to Work

Note: For the purposes of the Returning to Earning program, 'unemployed' is deemed to include paid employment for less than 6.5 hours per week.

Eligible candidates can apply for the Returning to Earning Grant via the website by completing the Statutory Declaration and Application form.

Applicants without online access can phone head office for an information pack—1300 366 044

For further enquiries please contact Renee Raptis
1300 366 044

Returning to Earning

